This Catalog is a record of all the books in the library, arranged alphabetically by the authors' names. Each book is listed by giving in order its author, title, and place and date of publication, followed by its Call number.

The Call number consists of the class and author marks, which have been assigned to every book. It corresponds to the notation indicated on its cover, and shows its location on the shelf.

All the books are arranged on the shelves in simple numerical order according to their call numbers. Thus a book falling under Class 512 (Algebra) precedes Class 513 (Geometry), but follows Class 511 (Arithmetic). This brings all books on the same or kindred subjects together.

According to the Classification scheme used, the books in the library are grouped into ten main classes with notations as follows:

000-099 GENERAL WORKS: Books that deal with no particular subject, such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, periodicals, newspapers, etc.

100-199 PHILOSOPHY: Psychology, ethics, etc.

200-299 RELIGION: Christian and non-Christian beliefs.

300-399 SOCIOLOGY: Government, economics, law, education, etc.

400-499 LANGUAGE: Grammars, dictionaries, etc. in all languages.

500-599 SCIENCE: Mathematics, astronomy, physics, chemistry, geology, biology, botany, zoology.

600-699 USEFUL ARTS: Medicine, engineering, agriculture, home economics, etc.

700-799 FINE ARTS: Architecture, sculpture, painting, engraving, music, etc.

800-899 LITERATURE: Poems, dramas, essays, etc. in all languages.

900-999 HISTORY: Travel, collective biography (giving the lives of several persons) histories of all countries.

TRAVEL: Includes description in all countries and has the number 910-919.

BIOGRAPHY: For collective 920 is used; for individual 921, under which the "lives" are arranged alphabetically by the name of the person written about.

FICTIONS. No classification has been provided for fictions in English; but these are arranged alphabetically by the author's surnames. Fictions in other languages bear their corresponding class numbers.

This list includes all books found in the library as of December 31, 1937.
